EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with William Westerman on 08/16/2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

claim 1, lines 10 and 13, "may supply" has been changed to ---supplies---.

claims 7-10 and 12, line 3, "its" has been deleted.

claim 11, line 2, "its" has been deleted.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not teach or disclose a device for driving a luminescent display panel wherein, in combination with the remaining features of the claims, in a state of supplying a forward-directional electric current to the luminescent element, it supplies a power source voltage level of positive potential to one terminal functioning as the anode of the luminescent element and supply a power source voltage level of negative potential to the other terminal functioning as the cathode of the luminescent element; and in a state of applying a reverse bias voltage to the luminescent element, it supplies a power source voltage level of negative potential to the one terminal functioning as the anode of the luminescent element and supply a power source voltage level of positive potential to the other terminal functioning as the cathode of the luminescent element; and at least
